

qrz.com für den Funkamateurl

qrz.com - Matthias, DH6MP - v1.2/2017

Was ist qrz.com?

qrz.com ist ein Onlinecallbook (Rufzeichendatenbank) erweitert um:

- persönliche Webseiten der Funkamateure / Clubstationen
- ein Forum
- Logbuchfunktionen

qrz.com ist in der „Basisedition“ kostenlos.
Üblicherweise wird in englisch geschrieben.

Was ist qrz.com nicht?

- Vollständig
- Ersatz für die Rufzeichenabfrage der BNetzA oder der entsprechenden Behörden anderer Länder

Warum ist qrz.com für mich wichtig?

- qrz.com wird häufig als „Visitenkarte“ des Funkamateurs betrachtet
- qrz.com ist bei vielen QSL-Services die erste Anlaufstelle bei Unklarheiten (z.B. beim DARC)
- In vielen Logbuchprogrammen wird qrz.com abgefragt und automatisch z.B. der Vorname zum Call eingeblendet¹

Logbook 49

Hello,

my name is Matthias and I live in the northwest of Germany, in the city named Vechta. I am licensed since February 17th, 2016 with the novice license and on August 23th, 2016 i upgraded my license to the advanced license. My former callsign was DO6MPI. My Locator is JO42dq.

I am member of the local chapter I20-Vechta of the DARC, the German Amateur-Radio-Club.

I am a trainer for new HAMS in the Hackerspace Bremen e.V. and at the moment we are educating new HAMS for the novice license. For education purposes I got a special callsign DN3ERD for HAM training. This callsign is like "driving school" and the trainee is able to work on the bands under my surveillance.
